Group to Continue Investigation Into School Catechism

Chapin McAllister of Decatur Will Teach
In Junior High School

Progress was reported Monday night by the committee appointed at last month's meeting of the board of education relative to investigating the feasibility of introducing catechetical classes in senior and junior high school similar to the system which is said to be working satisfactorily in Grand Haven schools.

The committee is continuing its investigation with an "open mind" and plans to visit the Bible classes of the Grand Haven schools soon. Committee members are Trustees A. E. Lampen, Albert Van Zoeren and John Olett.

The investigation is the outcome of a proposal by the Holland Ministerial association introduced at the September meeting by a committee consisting of Walter Vander Haar, George Schelling and Prof. Clarence Kleis.

Dr. E. F. Fell, superintendent of schools, announced that Chapin McAllister of Decatur has been employed to take the place of Paul Canbrun, teacher in junior high school, who will replace Clyde Geerlings in the physics department of Holland high school, effective Nov. 1. Geerlings will teach in Hope college in connection with the new army specialized training program.

Henry Geerlings, secretary of the board, announced that by next month school tax monies amounting to 99 per cent will be paid, pointing out that this is the best record here in history.

Bills amounting to $26,882.34 were allowed for the month. The board ordered paid the bill for special paving bordering the high school athletic field on 24th St. amounting to $3,593.77.

Geerlings announced that he had been approached by three girls of Holland high school who represented a far larger number in regard to a youth center for the city which they said should be open from 4 to 9:30 p.m. The center would require a large room suitable for games and dancing and a supervisor, it was proposed. No action was taken.

Rev. Schripsema Takes Post at Indian Mission

The Rev. H. J. Schripsema, pastor of Pine Creek Christian reformed church for the past 6½ years, has accepted a call to become missionary to the Navaho Indians at Carisso, Ariz.

The Indian name for the mission station is Teece Nas Pas. He will deliver his farewell sermon Oct. 31 at the afternoon service. He and Mrs. Schripsema and their three children, Gene, Marilyn and Ellen Joy, will leave for their new home early in November. Rev. Schripsema served as missionary at Eagle Butte, S.D., before coming to Pine Creek.

John Tuls, CHS Principal, To Teach at Hope College

John Tuls, acting principal, athletic coach and mathematics teacher at Holland Christian High school has been released from his duties at the school to take over a position as mathematics instructor under the A. S. T. P. program at Hope College. It was announced today by Supt. Walter De Kock of the Christian schools.

Mr. Tuls has taught mathematics at Holland Christian for the past eight years, the last five of which he also served as principal. He is head basketball coach and has charge of the entire athletic program. He has also served as coach for the senior class play the past several years. Mr. Tuls will remain at Christian through October and will assume his new duties at Hope Nov. 8.

PAYS FINE

Grand Haven, Oct. 14 (Special)—William Brady, 41, 711 Columbus St., paid a $25 fine and costs of $7.90 in Justice Peter Ver Duine's court Friday night upon his plea of guilty of reckless driving. He was arrested by sheriff's department in Ferrysburg earlier Friday night.

Apprehend Three Youths After Chase of Stolen Car

Police here had another chase-after-a-stolen-car case on their hands this week.

Albertus Lokenburg, 18, 110 East 17th St., and two 16-year-old youths were held as the climax to the theft of Henry Kraker's auto Tuesday night. The three youths allegedly took the car and, after a trip to Grand Rapids, were spotted by police early on Tuesday at 32nd St. and Michigan Ave. where the chase started. Finally abandoning the car in Prospect woods, the youths were caught after escaping on foot, police said.

Last Thursday, police figured in an involved pursuit of a car stolen here by a 15-year-old boy. At 8:57 p.m. Kraker, 51 West 14th St., reported his car missing from his parking place at the rear of the Teerman Hardware store and at about 1:45 a.m. Officer Charles Dulyea noticed a car without a rear plate at 32nd and Michigan and gave chase. At Prospect park, on the dirt road, the trio abandoned the car, letting it run down a slope into the woods. There Dulyea sent out a radio call and Officers Isaac De Kraker and John Kempker, who were cruising on Columbia Ave., arrived promptly to assist in the search.

At police headquarters, Capt. Neal Plagenhoef who also received the call, notified Detective Harris Neuma who lives in the Prospect park area. Neuma hastily joined the search and found Lokenburg hiding in a car in a garage in the locality. After questioning Lokenburg, officers picked up the other two who were "safe in bed" by that time.

In questioning at the police station, details of the night's adventure were pieced together. The three had taken the car here and had gone to Grand Rapids, stopping in Grandville for beer, police said. They planned to go to Chicago, but due to shortage of gas coupons decided first to return to Holland. The officials said they were informed.

Returning to Holland by way of Byron Center, they allegedly stole license plates off a pickup truck near a gas station at the west end of town and put one on the front of the stolen car. Near Byron Center, they threw out Kraker's plumbing tools, the car's license plates, an overcoat and other articles into a cow pasture, police reported. They entered Holland from East 16th St.

At police headquarters, Lokenburg and one of the other boys readily admitted their guilt, but the other youth was extremely cocky, saying he wouldn't admit anything until he appears in probate court. Police quoted him as saying he would "pick off the cops around here one by one when I get out."

A. Kolvoord, Pioneer Of Allegan, Succumbs

Albertus Kolvoord

Allegan, Oct. 14 (Special)—Funeral services for Albertus Kolvoord, 81, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday in the Nyberg funeral home, followed by burial in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Kolvoord died Tuesday morning after an illness of several years. Surviving are a son, Leon of Allegan; a grandson, Robert Kolvoord of Dallas, Tex.; and a granddaughter, Mrs. Carl Wahlsten of Allegan.

Mr. Kolvoord's father, Jan Kolvoord, was a member of a second group which followed Dr. A. C. Van Raalte to the Holland area. He later built a dam and small grist mill at New Groningen. It was in New Groningen that Albertus Kolvoord was born Feb. 18, 1856. His father died the same year.

Albertus was graduated from the Hope college preparatory department in 1878 and did clerking in various locations before opening a store in Hamilton which he operated for 12 years.

In 1891, he was one of three who purchased a flour mill in Allegan run by water power for $13,500 and for 18 years he traveled as a salesman going as far north as Traverse City and Cadillac. In 1912 a competing mill combined with the Kolvoord mill and formed a stock company of which Mr. Kolvoord was manager. He sold out his interest in 1920.

Blood Plasma Project To Benefit from Dance

Plans for a dancing party, to feature both modern and square dances, are being made by the ways and means committees of the Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for Nov. 6 in the Woman's Literary club. Proceeds from the party will be used for the society's blood plasma project and other philanthropic purposes. Light refreshments will be served.

On the committee are Mrs. John J. Mikula, chairman, and the Mesdames O. S. Cross, Eldon Dick, W. L. Eaton and Merrick Hanchett.

Hadden Wounded at Wake

In a dramatic story by Malcolm R. Johnson, United Press war correspondent who witnessed the two-day attack by air and sea on Wake island Oct. 5 and 6, Lieut. Mayo A. Hadden, Jr., of Holland was prominently mentioned as one of the outstanding fighter pilots who cleared the way for the bombers by their quick clean-up of enemy fighters.

Hadden who was granted a full lieutenant by Washington, effective this month, together with Lieut. (jg) Mark Bright, 24, Anderson, Ind., each downed a Zero over Wake in the first dawn battle. Hadden was wounded by the left leg by shrapnel and he brought his fighter back with more than 150 machine gun slugs and five cannon holes in it. A veteran of the North African invasion last November, Hadden was wounded in the right leg in that campaign.

For his part in the African invasion, the local officer was presented with two medals, the Silver Star and the Purple Heart when he sent to his infant son, Mayo Hadden III, who with his mother are at present staying with Hadden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo A. Hadden, Sr., 276 Pine Ave.

In the citation for the Silver

Lieut. (sgt) Mayo A. Hadden

Star for his part in French Morocco, Hadden sustained 12 machine gun hits in his plane and a severe shrapnel wound in the right leg, but nevertheless defied a bursting had of anti-aircraft fire while destroying hostile planes on the ground and attempting to silence a coastal battery.

Folks in Holland Just Too Healthy

Donor Appointments
Canceled Because of Lack of Rejections

"People in Holland are just too healthy."

That was the conclusion officials of the traveling blood clinic arrived at when blood tests resulted in so few rejections that Red Cross workers in charge of arrangements were obliged to cancel a number of the appointments.

Ordinarily, the clinic aides expect to use 40 out of 65 volunteers. But there were no rejections in Holland Tuesday and Wednesday aside from a few persons who had eaten improperly and were instructed to return later. This morning there were a few rejections.

A total of 102 donated blood Tuesday and Wednesday and another 30 were taken care of this morning. A few persons fainted, but recovery was prompt. All appointments are filled for Friday, the Red Cross said.

Mrs. Antonia Scholl, 81, Dies in Illinois Home

Mrs. Antonia Scholl, 81, until recently a resident of Holland, died Wednesday noon in the Barrington Rest home, Barrington, Ill., where she spent the past year and a half. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Hazel Butler of Pittsburgh, Pa., and two grandchildren, Jordan Bihler of Pittsburgh and Daniel of West Virginia.

Funeral services will be held on Friday at 1 p.m. in the Longland funeral home with Elders E. D. Calkins officiating and burial in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

G. H. CLUB AWARDED

Grand Haven, Oct. 14 (Special)—The Kiwanis award for attaining a membership goal was given to Grand Haven club at the state meeting in Lansing Tuesday.

Presenting Louis Van Schoyck, Vice-President Stephen Mead, Secretary W. D. Ford and State Police Sgt. Verne C. Dater represented the local group at a convention. Dater was elected governor of the third district which comprises Holland, Grand Haven, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and Hastings.

Risks Life to Aid Wounded; Awarded

Sicily, (Special)—The Soldier's Medal has been awarded to Sgt. Raymond L. Houting, 50, son of Mrs. Bertha Houting, route 2, Holland, Mich., by headquarters of the "Earthquakers," a medium bombardment group operating from Sicily.

Sgt. Houting distinguished himself by risking his life to give first aid that had much to do with saving the life of a wounded soldier.

A medium bomber with a full load of bombs crashed in the "Earthquakers" camp area. It caught fire and two of the bombs went off at once and another a few seconds later. All the crew were killed in the crash.

Hearing the explosions, Sgt. Houting ran to the dispensary to volunteer his services. With the group surgeon and two officers he drove to where the plane had crashed and rendered first aid to a severely-injured enlisted man, who had been in his tent close to where the plane crashed.

All this was done in an area scattered with burning parts of the plane, and unexploded bombs which might have gone off at any moment. He remained in the danger area for more than an hour, searching for others who might be hurt.

His actions constituted, the most selfless sort of heroism, far beyond the call of duty, and reflect great credit both on himself and on the armed forces of the United States, his commanding officer said.

Before his entry into the service he was an employee of Hart and Cooley Manufacturing Co. Sgt. Houting was inducted into military service July 22, 1941, at Fort Custer and from there was transferred to Camp Grant, Ill., for basic training and later to McChord field at Tacoma, Wash., for training in the medical section of the army air corps. He was attached to an air corps station in Louisiana before being sent overseas.

C.G. Reservists Will Go to St. Joseph for Training

After an intensive 12-week training course, the local flotilla of United States coast guard temporary reserve will go to the St. Joseph coast guard station for the next two week-ends for an indoctrination training period. The training course will include such subjects as military drill, beach-land drill, first aid, navy etiquette and customs and port security duties. The faculty for this course is made up of highly experienced coast guard officers from the Lake Michigan district including Chief Morse E. Rhea of the Holland station.

It is expected that approximately 40 men from the Holland flotilla will attend for the full period. The men's wives or lady friends will be invited to attend the afternoon of the second Sunday of the training period to witness an inspection, at which time a light lunch and refreshments will be served. The flotilla will leave from Washington school at 10 a.m. Saturday in two coast guard transports.

The men are very proud of the new equipment issued at Grand Haven last week. Each man was supplied with blue and khaki uniforms, hat, shoes, overcoat, raincoat, underwear, socks, ties and gloves.

After a directive from Chicago district coast guard headquarters recently, the flotilla was reorganized into three platoons administered by a commander and two assistants.

The commander of the local group is Martin Michelsen, chief boatswain's mate; vice-commander, Edgar Landwehr; and junior commander and training officer, Warren S. Merriam, also chief boatswain's mate. The platoon chiefs are Paul Van Hartesveldt, Frank Lieveson and Verne C. Hohl, all boatswain's mates second class. In addition, Charles R. Duhmeier has been appointed chief yeoman and L. H. Henke has been appointed supply officer.

Milton Parker of Grand Haven Dies

Grand Haven, Oct. 14 (Special)—Milton Parker, 62, 419 Elliott St., died early on Saturday in Municipal hospital where he had been confined for the past three months. He was born in Cincinnati, O. Dec. 23, 1881, and came to Grand Haven in 1914 from Flint, where he had been employed in a tannery. While in Grand Haven he was employed at the Eagle-Ottawa Co. as a doper and splinter.

In 1915 he married Miss Etta Strap of Grand Haven who survives him. Other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Fred Justian and Miss Betty Parker, both of Grand Haven.

G.H. Lieutenant Prisoner of War

Grand Haven, Oct. 14 (Special)—Mrs. Grace Van Oordt of Ferrysburg received a telegram on Saturday from Adj. Gen. Clio advising her that her son, Second Lieut. Paul K. Van Oordt, 20, has been reported a prisoner of war. Mrs. Van Oordt had received a telegram from the war department Sept. 14 advising her that her son had been reported missing as of August 20. He had been piloting a P-38 accompanying bombers over Italy before the invasion and Mrs. Van Oordt believes her son is a prisoner of the Germans in Italy where they are still in position.

The telegram received this morning stated that the report of his being a prisoner was received through the International Red Cross.

Favor Legion Club As Service Center

Following an informal meeting Tuesday night of the Legion service committee and the special committee appointed last week by common council, the latter group expressed itself as being favorably impressed with possibilities of using the Legion club rooms on the second floor of the Tower building as a service center and instructed the Legion to make an estimate of improvements, equipment and the like and report at the next meeting of council Oct. 20.

Dr. Bruce Raymond, coordinator for the army specialized training program at Hope college which will open here the first part of November, pointed out that the students will be free only from 6 to 8 p.m. each day and will be off on week-ends from 4 p.m. Saturday to 8 p.m. Sunday.

No rent will be entailed if the Legion club rooms are used for the purpose, it was pointed out. Eventually, a committee likely will be appointed including representatives of various service organizations in the city, it was indicated.

The Holland flotilla also issues a monthly publication called "The Bilge Pump" which is presented as a means of distributing information, instructions, local gossip and news of other flotillas to the local complement.

The coast guard temporary reserve was organized to provide men capable of performing during their leisure time, the duties of the regular coast guard, so that the regulars can be relieved for active fighting duty. Each man in the Holland flotilla has, since last May, given up many hours of his leisure time in training and active duty without any remuneration other than the satisfaction that he is performing a service to his country in one of the greatest branches of our armed forces.

Three Deliveries Of Milk This Week

Dairymen Are Awaiting
Further Developments
After Meeting in City

Benjamin Speet, president of the Holland Milk Dealers association, said here that, following a lengthy meeting of milk dealers in the city hall Monday night, local dealers are "marking time" and awaited further developments in the situation of threatened Sunday deliveries which is involving a religious issue among the church people in western Michigan.

Rep. Bartel J. Jonkman of Grand Rapids, has reported that the new ODT order forcing retail delivery of milk every other Sunday may be eased.

Speet said that for this week, local consumers may expect three deliveries, Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. At Monday night's meeting, dealers attempted to figure out a schedule uniform to all dealers, but no system was adopted as each dealer has different problems as to drivers, routes and the like.

Local milk dealers are interested in the outcome of a substitute system offered by Grand Rapids dealers who are seeking permission to deliver the milk late Saturday afternoons or evenings instead of Sunday twice a month. This system would require no more gasoline or tire usage, but is contrary to a clause in the ODT directive which states deliveries must be at least 48 hours apart. Grand Rapids dealers also are considering filing a federal injunction against the office of defense transportation, a possibility which was discussed at the Holland meeting.

Speet requested consumers in Holland to put out all milk bottles at every delivery, since the new system is working hardships on all dairies. He said fewer deliveries means nearly twice as many bottles are needed and since they are hard to get from manufacturers, most dairies have been put to severe inconveniences.

Prosecuting Attorney Is Given Navy Commission

Howard W. Fant

Grand Haven, Oct. 14 (Special)—Prosecuting Attorney Howard W. Fant of Ottawa county on Monday told members of the board of supervisors that he has been granted a commission in the United States naval reserve with the rank of lieutenant (jg) and has received active duty orders to report to Princeton university in New Jersey Oct. 13.

Fant, with approval of Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles, has appointed Louis H. Osterhus of Grand Haven as assistant prosecuting attorney.

Fant requested adoption of a short resolution granting him a leave of absence and expressed appreciation to the board and all personnel of law enforcement agencies in the county for the courtesies and cooperation given him.

Prosecutor Fant, 34, is married and has no children. He began his second term as prosecutor Jan. 1, 1943. He was granted his commission Sept. 3 and was sworn in Sept. 22. He left Wednesday.

30 Army Trucks To Assist Ottawa Scrap Campaign

Will Pick Up Metal
Piled in School Yards
Throughout County

John Van Dam, county salvage chairman, has announced that a contingent of about 30 army trucks manned by approximately 75 enlisted men will be in Holland Wednesday, Oct. 27, to assist in the collection of heavy scrap metals in Ottawa county which is being promoted through the schools.

According to a wire received Thursday afternoon from John D. McGillis of the war production board in Detroit, the caravan will arrive in Holland at 6 p.m. the preceding day for supper and will spend the night in the army under arrangements by Major Henry Rowan of Holland. According to present plans, Tuesday night's supper and Wednesday morning's breakfast will be served at the Mary Jane restaurant. Provisions will be made for box lunches on the field.

The county salvage committee is now engaged in making routes for the trucks to follow throughout the county. From now until Oct. 27, all school yards will serve as dumping grounds for Victory scrap metal piles. Besides the money which the schools will collect through sale of the scrap through commercial sources, the county committee is offering $100 in prizes. Honors will be figured according to a per capita basis to give the small schools an equal chance with the larger schools.

Although the quota assigned Ottawa county is 434 tons of the Michigan quota of 18,787 tons, Chairman Van Dam said that the county committee which works through the office of civilian defense is attempting to fill a self-assigned quota of a thousand tons.

"The significance which the army attaches to the salvage program is graphically attested by its decision to send out trucks and men to gather scrap metal on the home front," Chairman Van Dam said. "This certainly ought to wake us all to the fact that salvage is the most vital of our home front duties, and that the war is far from being won. It should spur us to increased effort in all fields of salvage."

The new campaign stressing heavy metals, particularly iron and steel, is being built chiefly around the school children of the county. County School Commissioner D. H. Vande Bunte is giving full support to the program which will be jointly administered by the salvage committee and his office.

After the scrap is taken from the school yards by the army trucks, it will be dumped on one huge pile in Holland and will be shipped out from here.

The county salvage committee is planning a series of meetings in all townships from Oct. 18 to 22 to promote the heavy metals campaign.

Salvage officials pointed out that the heavy metals campaign is entirely separate from the tin cans, waste paper and waste fats drives. A tin can collection will be scheduled later.

Farewell Party Given Marvin J. Veldhoff

A farewell party was given Tuesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hemmeke at Montello park in honor of their brother, Marvin J. Veldhoff, who is to leave today for entrance in the U. S. navy. The guest of honor was presented with a navy wrist watch. Hymns were sung and a two-course lunch was served by Mrs. B. Frens and Mrs. Hemmeke.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Veldhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stegink, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Frens, Myra and Ruth Frens, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Folkert, Barbara and Karen Folkert, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hemmeke, Beverly and Sharon Hemmeke, Jennie Veldhoff, Donald Stegink, Greta Stegink and Marvin Veldhoff.

Local Servicemen May Call for Testaments

Ben Van Lente, local Gideon, today announced that persons in or entering the armed services from Holland, who have not received Testaments from the Gideons may call or have a member of the family stop at Mr. Van Lente's office, 177 College Ave., or call Herman Bos, 32 West Eighth St. It was mentioned that several servicemen have not received the Testaments as they did not go with the groups leaving from draft headquarters.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Buurina, 292 West 18th St., that their son, Clarence Buurina, has been released from a Camp Hood, Tex. hospital, and is now attending New York university.

Challenge Extended by Youth Counselor Here

Extending a challenge to service and other organizations of the city to recognize the needs of the young people of the community, Mrs. Dorothy Waldo Phillips of Lansdowne, Pa., psychologist and youth counselor, addressed approximately 500 parents and interested persons in Holland high school auditorium Monday night.

Mrs. Phillips, who is spending two days in the city speaking to young people and adults on the problems of present day youth, took as her subject for her evening lecture, "Have You Met the Other Half of Your Child?" Referring to the child's mind and intellectual development as one half, the speaker talked principally of the heart and the emotional side of the child and young person.

Most problems that youth encounter today are emotional and relate to the personality, and the young people of today need sympathy and support, especially in this war time, Mrs. Phillips advised. "Our greatest national resource is our youth, and we need to invest heavily in it," she said.

Youth and adults need to go into partnership that the full dynamic force of the former may be utilized. "You can't put the lid on all that energy without having an explosion," she declared.

Mrs. Phillips, who has had extensive experience in the solving of the problems of young people, centered her talk about the principles of democracy, stressing the sacredness of the personality in relation to the development of the child through the various ages. "What about all the energy of youth in war time?" she asked. "Can our secret weapon be mental hygiene, something Mr. Hitler knows nothing about?"

The speaker advised wise parents to try to find ways to answer that secret voice which whispers constantly to the child "I want to be important." She denounced comparisons and urged the positive and not the negative approach. Tread lightly in the world of personality, and step frequently into the realm of the imagination, were her suggestions.

In an informal discussion which followed her lecture, three Holland high school boys who had heard her speak at school chapel services Monday morning, made a plea for a youth center and the cooperation of parents in solving the local recreation problem. Those to speak were Jack Fitzpatrick, Miles Baskett and Don J. J. Vining.

Mrs. Phillips was introduced by Mrs. John D. White, president of Holland branch, American Association of University Women, one of the organizations sponsoring the talks.

The program opened with the advance of the colors and the singing of the National Anthem accompanied by the Holland high school string orchestra under the direction of E. F. Heeter. The orchestra played several popular numbers, including "Perpetual Motion," "Night and Day," "Begin the Beguine," and "Jazz Pizzicato," which had been chosen by the group.

Among Many Who Are Active in Surgical Dressings Work

Mrs. J. Hartshorn of Central park, Mrs. B. W. Welton, 31 East 24th St., and Mrs. Peter J. Paulus, 154 East 21st St., pictured here, left to right, are among the many local women who have contributed generously of their time to the making of surgical dressings under direction of the American Red Cross in their production rooms in the Temple building.

Mrs. Welton, who did knitting and other Red Cross work during World War I, has one service stripe, and will soon have completed two years of activity in the surgical dressings work. There is no more regular attendant at the production rooms than Mrs. Welton who works each day the rooms are open five or six hours at a stretch, a record in faithful devotion to a patriotic cause. She has put in 814 hours during 1942 and 1943. Her youngest son, Staff Sgt. Max Welton, is now in Australia after serving five months in New Guinea.

Mrs. Hartshorn holds an all time record with over 12,000 surgical dressings made since Jan. 1, 1942. She has put in 307 hours of work during 1942 and 1943, in addition to 600 hours of knitting. She works at the production rooms every Thursday all day, usually six or seven hours, and some days makes as many as 500 dressings. She has one son, Corp. Marinus Hartshorn, in North Africa where he went through the Tunisian campaign, and also has a son-in-law, Howard Jaling, in the service.

Mrs. Paulus, with 282 hours for 1942 and 1943, has spent two days a week at the Red Cross rooms, and completed a year of activity in August. She has a daughter, First Lieut. Margaret Paulus, in the army nurse's corps.

Mrs. Willis Diekema and Mrs. Henry Maentz, chairmen of the surgical dressings work, pay high tribute to the many women who have willingly offered their services to this very necessary and important work. In the background are seen Mrs. Diekema and Mrs. O. W. Lowry.

Three of Slagh Family in Navy; One to Study Medicine

William R. Slagh

John R. Slagh

Edward P. Slagh

Pharmacist's Mate First Class Edward P. (Eddie) Slagh of the U. S. navy who is spending a 28-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slagh, 222 West 10th St., soon will give up his petty officer stripes and hash mark representing three years of service, and return to the humble status of apprentice seaman.

But that isn't so bad as it sounds because Slagh has been recommended by the navy following many months of service in the south Pacific area for medical training in the navy V-12 specialized program which after 4 1/2 years of study in some college or university plus a year of navy internship, will make him a full fledged physician.

It's as much of a surprise to Eddie as it is to his friends here. Some weeks ago at his base on some south Pacific island he was informed that he had been recommended for the medical training and was being returned to the states. He has had no advanced training for a doctor's career although he did major in chemistry and sciences in Holland high school from which he was graduated in 1938, and also received considerable training as a pharmacist's mate.

He arrived in Holland Sept. 25 and plans to leave Monday for San Diego, Calif., where he will be five or six days. While there he will be assigned to his medical school which he hopes will be the University of Michigan. Although his rank will be an apprentice seaman, he will wear the midshipman or cadet uniform.

But Eddie isn't the only member of the Slagh family in the navy. His brother, John R., enlisted with him in July 26, 1939, and also is a pharmacist's mate. They served together constantly until November, 1942, when both were ill. Eddie of malaria and John of shell shock, and were sent to hospital bases on different islands. John at present is in active service on the Pacific.

The latest navy enlistee of the Slagh family is young William (Bill) R. Slagh, 18, the six-foot-two-and-a-half-inch fellow who served as life guard at Kollen park during the summer. Eddie is six feet four and John is practically a "runt" at six feet one inch. It is understood that six feet four inches used to be the limit for navy enlistees, but this was changed some time ago to six feet, six inches.

Bill enlisted with the navy Sept. 22 and left Holland Sept. 27, just two days after Eddie arrived, so the two had an opportunity for a good "gabfest" and at least Bill knows what to expect. He is taking his "boot" training at Great Lakes, Ill., and unlike his pharmacist brothers would like to be a gunner's mate.

There are two younger brothers in the Slagh family, aged 12 and 14, who also say they will join the navy, but they will have to wait a while.

The two older brothers figured in three major engagements at Guadalcanal which was held by the Japs when they landed with the marines Aug. 7, 1943. John was shell-shocked during a major attempt of the Japanese to land on Guadalcanal in October. The sea and air attack started the night of Oct. 13 and continued through 14 and 15. Both Eddie and John had been doing first aid work in the field.

Eddie declined to describe the bloody fighting or the treacherous tactics of the Japs. The two brothers were taken from Guadalcanal sometime between Nov. 1 and 5, John leaving two days before Eddie. Eddie saw John for a couple of hours at a hospital on another island and then Eddie was put aboard a hospital ship for hospitalization at another south Pacific base.

John left shortly for the United States and was able to spend Christmas with the family and was home when his son was born around Christmas time. His wife, a former Muskegon girl, and their son live on West 10th St. After spending a 30-day leave here, he went to a naval hospital at Mare island near San Francisco for two or three months and then transferred to Bremerton, Wash., for active duty. About Sept. 1 he left Bremerton in charge of 45 pharmacist's mates for action on the Pacific.

After hospitalization at a south Pacific base, Eddie returned to active service about Feb. 1 and remained on duty until the middle of August when he was informed he was being recommended for medical training and would be sent home. He arrived on the west coast about Sept. 1.

The two brothers received their basic training at Newport, R. I. They went to Portsmouth, Va., for their pharmacist training and spent a year in training in Philadelphia Naval hospital. From there they were transferred to a fleet marine force and spent eight months on maneuvers in Cuba, South Carolina and North Carolina. They were in South Carolina when war was declared and within a few months they were sent across the country and embarked for the south Pacific. John was able to return home for a visit by the end of 1942, but Eddie waited about a year and a half for the privilege.

While at Guadalcanal, the Slaghs shared their experiences with three other Holland boys. Bob Vos, Eugene Cony and John Kalkman, all marines.

Yadnom Club Discusses Government of Mexico
Mrs. Nina Daugherty, who this year heads the Yadnom club as president, spoke on the government of Mexico and the life of its president, at the regular meeting of the club in the home of Miss Iva Stanton Monday night. The program followed dessert which was served by the hostess.

The present constitution was adopted in 1917, Mrs. Daugherty explained, and provided for social guarantees and contained land and labor provisions. The president serves six years and may not be reelected. John Gunther's vivid description of President Avila Camacho, was read, and revealed his qualities of leadership and the expectation that he will put in six years of constructive work.

There followed an interesting discussion on the problems of Mexico and Mrs. Daugherty showed items of interest which she secured on her trip to Mexico.

Two Cars Badly Damaged In Crash at Intersection

Three persons were treated in Holland hospital Friday night for injuries received in a bad auto crash at 9:30 p.m. at the corner of 15th St. and Central Ave. Mrs. Henry Smit, 30, 94 West Seventh St., driver of one car, who suffered scalp wounds and body bruises, and Staff Sgt. Vernon Drost, 95 East 21st St., driver of the car, who was severely shaken, were released shortly after treatment. Mrs. Julius Drost, also 95 East 21st St. who was riding with her brother-in-law suffered scalp wounds and bruises.

The car driven by Drost, a cream-colored convertible owned by John Oonk of Holland, was completely wrecked. The Smit car was badly damaged but can be repaired.

Drost, home on leave from the Percy Jones hospital at Battle Creek where he is under observation for wounds suffered in action in the southwest Pacific, was driving south on Central Ave. and Mrs. Smit, driving a '36 model Tudor, was traveling west on 15th St.

The impact caused the Smith car to turn around completely, throwing Mrs. Smit to the pavement. Numerous tools in the car trunk were thrown all over the pavement. The convertible struck a tree on the southwest corner bending the right door into a V. The other door was knocked open and Drost was partly out of the car.

Mrs. Smit who was partly conscious and Mrs. Drost who was unconscious were taken to the hospital in local ambulances. Drost was dazed and was back "fighting the Japs." One person on the scene said it took four men to hold him down. He was taken to the hospital in the combination police cruiser and ambulance.

His mother, Mrs. Minnie Drost, has been a patient in the hospital since July 20.

Witnesses listed by police include Klaas Bultuis, 19 West 22nd St., and Theodore Hoeksema, 32nd St., who were standing at 14th St. and Central Ave., and Paul Lokker, 29 East 15th St., who was a block east on 15th St. Russ Vande Poel was the first one at the scene.

Staff Sgt. Drost was inducted into the army April 15, 1941, and a year later was sent overseas. He was wounded in New Guinea Dec. 2, 1942. According to information received here last December, Drost, then a corporal, was credited with having saved the lives of his entire company. With nearly all of his squad killed or wounded, he held his position behind a machine gun in face of advancing Jap fire and caused the Japs to reveal the extent of their deployment.

Pvt. Eldon Dale Maatman was born August 5, 1924. He enlisted in the marines Jan. 19, 1943, and received his basic training at San Diego and Camp Pendleton, Calif. He was sent overseas in July and is now in the South Pacific area. He was employed at Precision Parts before his enlistment.

Petty Officer Elwyn Maatman and Pvt. Eldon Maatman are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Maatman of Hamilton.

Plan Service Roll For Legion Band

Plans for a service roll or panel are being made by the American Legion band which to date, according to records, has 35 members who have entered service in the armed forces. These young men were members of the band at the time they entered service.

There have been many rapid changes in personnel during the past two years, Harold J. Karsten, president, explained today. The band has about 45 members at present. He urged families to contact him if other names should be included on the service roll, which will probably be displayed in the band room in the city hall or downtown.

Band members who have entered the service include Howard Jaling, Ransom Everett, Gil Tora, E. De Weert, Kenneth Steketee, Gordon Berkel, Harvey Van Dyke, Jack Smith, Robert Scherhorn, Clyde Woltman, Don Iruan, Dale Van Lente, Jack French, John Kleis, Don Kuite, Keith Soderberg, Robert Spaulding, James Den Herder.

Medusa Cement Company To Improve Present Dock

The Medusa Cement Co. which is located in Holland 4 1/2 years ago is planning to repair and improve its present 15 by 325 foot dock, according to Clarence Anderson, superintendent of the local branch, who said the condition of the dock is poor because of the high waters.

Since priorities do not allow steel piles, wooden piles will be used and work will begin as soon as supplies are received here. The dock will have a cement top. The contract has been let to the L. W. Lamb Construction Co.

Mrs. Heerspink Surprised On Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Ida Heerspink, 202 West 17th St., was guest of honor at a surprise party given in her home Friday night in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bongse and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lubbers and John J. De Weert, Mr. and Mrs. James Heerspink and Roger James and Ruth Eline, Mr. and Mrs. William Lubbers and Robert, Mrs. John R. Lubbers and Le Roy, Miss Henrietta Lubbers and Miss Henrietta Heerspink.

Serving Under the Stars and Stripes

Petty Officer Elwyn J. Maatman

Elwyn J. Maatman, petty officer third class, enlisted in the navy Aug. 21, 1942. He received his basic training at Great Lakes, Ill., and from there was sent to San Diego, Calif., to attend carpenter school, from which he graduated in March. Since April he has been stationed in the South Pacific. He was born Dec. 23, 1920, and before his enlistment was employed as a carpenter.

Pvt. Eldon Dale Maatman was born August 5, 1924. He enlisted in the marines Jan. 19, 1943, and received his basic training at San Diego and Camp Pendleton, Calif. He was sent overseas in July and is now in the South Pacific area. He was employed at Precision Parts before his enlistment.

Petty Officer Elwyn Maatman and Pvt. Eldon Maatman are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Maatman of Hamilton.

Issue 51 Violation Tickets For Defective Lights Here

Local police officers Saturday night issued 51 violation tickets for defective lights in a check on River Ave. near Eighth St. According to state law, an auto must have a red tail light, two white headlights and the rear license plate must be lighted. Any infraction of these rules resulted in a violation ticket in Saturday night's check.

Persons receiving tickets are required to have the lights repaired and report to the police station for another check. Those living out of town may dispose of the matter by having the garage where the lights are repaired send in a report to police headquarters here.

Anyone can criticize, but it takes a wise man to point out an error and at the same time point a way to correct it.

THE U. S. AN "OLD" NATION

A student of political science took the trouble the other day to remind the American people that their government is the "oldest government on earth." He qualified the statement somewhat by adding that by "oldest" he meant the government that has remained longest "unchanged."

Even that qualification would call for further qualification. For even children know that our government has not remained unchanged since its inception. We have added more than a score of amendments to our fundamental law, some of which—such as those that grew out of the Civil war—were equivalent to a revolution. But for most practical purposes the statement may be accepted.

We have certainly not changed
as radically as most of the governments that are usually thought of as much older. England's democratic form of government of today, for instance, forms a radical antithesis to the near-absolutist monarchy of the days of George III when our constitution was adopted. Holland, during that period, has gone from monarchy to a republican form, and back again. France today is separated from the France that helped us to win our freedom, by the French Revolution. Italy has changed its form of government several times during the past century. So has Germany. Russia of today is hardly more than 25 years old. Even China, changeless in her fundamental concepts of life, has a very "young" government compared with ours.

Perhaps Japan is the one serious exception to the generalization about the "age" of the world's governments. Japan of course has streamlined its several-thousand-years-old pattern of government
by galvanizing it with fascist motivation. But in its essential pattern Japan's government has probably not changed more than has our own. A Japanese political scientist could make out pretty good case for the assertion that Japan's government is the "oldest on earth."

But in the Western world we are one of the older brothers, perhaps the oldest brother of all.
Yet we think of ourselves as young, and we feel young. And rightly so. For in most of the other countries, while the present governments are relatively new, the social stratification is centuries old. On this continent a government grew out of new social forms of life; the latter is as young or as old as the former.
While politically we are old, our social structure is young. We have a right to lay our plans for another thousand years on this continent, with the political pattern continuing to grow out of the life of a people young in spirit.

THE CHURCH INVITES YOU

To get the most out of a service of worship one needs to be as "clay in the potter's hand." When this condition obtains, something takes place within the personality so that one can be firm while moved with compassion, staunch and steadfast, but easy to be entered; unwilling to condone wrong, but at the same time tender and forgiving and touched with the feelings for the infirmities of weakness. Unconsciously the will of God is acknowledged and an inner strength comes to do His will. Nothing pays greater dividends than church attendance.
Why not accept the invitation and go to church next Sunday?

Jesus and the Sabbath
Exodus 20: 8-11; Isaiah 58: 3, 14;
Mark 2: 27; 3: 6

By Henry Geerlings
The place of the Sabbath in the life of the church and in the life of the nation cannot be disputed. It is written large in the literature of our nation. The part it has had in the development of our political life, in the making of our laws, in determining what our relationship should be to our fellowmen, and in maintaining a true sense of spiritual values, can never be questioned. As we face the future we dare not forget this fact. If it has had a conspicuous part in bringing us to the point we have reached, we cannot be blind to the place we should accord it in the years ahead. We are proud of the fact that we can appeal to history when we wish to evaluate the importance of this day.

The first reference we have in the Bible to the Sabbath as it is frequently called is in the first verses of Genesis 2. We read there that the Lord, having completed
His work on the six days, rested on the seventh. That seems to be the last reference to that particular day until we come across it again in Exodus 12. Nevertheless there does seem to have lingered
in the thought of the people
the memory of that hallowed day until it was set apart in a new and more emphatic sense at the time of the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egypt under Moses. It came to be a pronounced position in the religious life of the Jews when they were fed with manna from heaven, and was listed in the commandments which God gave to Moses on the mountain.

But if they were to glorify God
with their worship on the seventh day, they were to glorify Him in their labor on the other six days of the week. Each in its own way was to enable them to do the will of God, and yet so distinct were they that God drew a clear line between them. The Sabbath here is based upon the rest of God following the creation, while in Deuteronomy it is based on the deliverance of the Israelites from the bondage of Egypt.

Many students of the Bible draw a distinction between the origin and antiquity of the Sabbath and the legal observance of it as a mosaic institution. The blessing of this day and the hallowing of it is connected with creation. There seem to be traces of the seventh day period before the flood as recorded in Scripture. The origin of the day of rest is very ancient, and its observance seems to be founded in a universal practice. Much of its purpose and value rests back upon the fundamental needs of man for a day of physical rest and spiritual refreshment.

In the Mosaic command to observe the Sabbath, it is implied also the necessity of engaging in work the other days of the week. Man is to work as well as rest. Human labor is not to run on in result-less circles. There is a harmony of life implied in the God-given command of days of labor and a day of rest.

The proper observance of the Sabbath day rests upon its divine institution. The day is a gift of divine grace for the sanctification of God's people. There is something sacramental and sacrificial about the appointment and use of this day. God gives us what we need. The provision for a weekly day of rest and worship
has a mark of divinity about it.
There is a universal obligation to perpetuate this day.

Our day of rest is valuable for physical health. Constant work would undermine the physical health of even the strongest. All of us need change and recupera-tion. The Sabbath makes provision for this need. Unfortunately many people today are required to work seven days a week. Both the command of God and common sense should lead us to make provision that every individual secures one rest day in seven,
even though this day of rest does not coincide with the Lord's day.

It ministers to individual physical health and to the health of the race to obey God's command.
The Sabbath is valuable for our mental and spiritual health.
It is essential to change one's labor occasionally. Sunday allows us to direct our attention away from purely secular matters to those concerning the kingdom of God. A change from one interest to another is rest, and worship is an interest.

A Guilty Conscience

Gym Program at HHS Under Way

A program of extensive gymnastics for Holland high school boys inaugurated one year ago by Athletic Director Leon N. Moody
and Head Coach Malcolm Mackay has moved into full swing for the second consecutive year in the high school gym.

The program includes gym for high school seniors five days a week, which in former years called for two. It includes gym three days a week for juniors and sophomores as well as three days
a week for Junior high school students.

The main purpose of the program is to prepare the boys for the tough training given them upon entering the armed forces
after graduation. An obstacle course is set for the youngsters and new plans include a great deal more calisthenics and competitive drills. When the weather permits, the boys do outdoor marching and have outdoor sports.

With the coming of winter the gym will be in use about 14 hours a day, with the exception of Saturdays and Sundays.

Evening organizations using the gym will be: Monday, the local CAP; Tuesday, Women's Athletic club; Wednesday, the U.S. coast guard; Thursday, Hi-Y and a basketball league; Friday, intramural sports.

SUNDAY DINNER
Suggestions

ALTHOUGH the hot weather
fruits such as peaches and blueberries have about disappeared from the markets, autumn fruits are taking their places. Seckel pears and New York state pears are arriving in fairly good quantity and Eastern apples, red and white grapes and cranberries are plentiful.

Potatoes are quite low-priced now and the Food Service for Home Makers suggests home storing for winter use. Spinach is one of the more attractively priced items and there are still good supplies of yellow onions and turnips.
Long Island cauliflower is beginning to come into market but is not for limited budgets.

There is quite a bit more veal available this week and a good supply of poultry. Beef, smoked pork and other smoked meats are still short.

High winds off the Atlantic coast have kept the fishing boats from going out and the supply of fish is quite limited this week.

The following Sunday dinner menus are made up of the more plentiful items:

- No. 1
Beef Pie with Vegetables
Steamed Swiss Chard
Hot Rolls
Creamy Rice Pudding
Hot Tea
- No. 2
Stuffed Breast of Veal
Diced Potatoes in Cream Sauce
Buttered Yellow Squash
Cracked Wheat Bread
Cranberry Upside Down Cake
Hot Coffee
- No. 3
Roast Chicken with Bread Stuffing
Cauliflower with Cheese
and Tomato Sauce
Broiled Sausages
Hot Muffins
Mixed Fruit Salad
Gingerbread
Hot Tea

Creston Score in Final Minute Beats Dutch, 14-12

In a game packed with thrills for the full 60 minutes, Holland high school's football team fell before the Creston Polar Bears, 14-12, Saturday afternoon in a game played on Houseman's field in Grand Rapids.

Both teams showed surprising strength—defensively and offensively—but the play was spotty with neither team maintaining a steady pace. At times the Holland defense was like the "wall of China," hurling Creston runners back on one occasion a total of 21 yards on three successive plays and on other instances Creston rocketed through the Dutch defense for gains of 51 yards on three successive plays and for 36 yards on three other successive tries.

Marvin Van Eck, an end, scored both of the Holland touchdowns on double reverse plays. The first game in the opening quarter when he galloped 20 yards for the score and the second came on a 80-yard run from his own 20-yard line. Those were the only two double reverses the Dutchmen tried all afternoon and they worked with sensational precision.

It was with 50 seconds left to play, and Holland leading 12 to 7, when Creston scored the winning touchdown. It came on a march from their own 20-yard line, after Hudzik had punted into the end-zone.

Brown passed incomplete on the first down and then McGee passed to Brown which netted eight yards. Brown smashed the center of the line for a first down. On the next play after a pass had failed to click, Slocum, a substitute back pitched a pass to Brown which brought the ball down to the Holland 27-yard line for a net gain of 43 yards.

After a Holland timeout, Slocum hit the Dutch line for four yards and Brown for 12 making it a first down on Holland's 10-yard line with the ball resting between the 10 and 11-yard line. McGee then hit center for five, Brown for one and then McGee was stopped for no gain making it fourth down and about 41 yards to a first down and five yards to a touch-down.

On the next play McGee slashed over his own right side for 43 yards with the nose of the ball touching the Holland goal line, for a first down. After a penalty of five yards for being off-side, Creston's renowned McGee smashed over making the score, 13-12. McGee kicked the extra point.

The first Bear's touchdown was scored by Visner from the one-foot line after McGee had skirted the Holland flank for a gain of 35 yards.

Numerous mental lapses on the part of the Dutchmen might well have caused the Dutch defeat. However the Holland line opened gaping holes in the Polar Bear's line time after time and the work of Van Eck, both on defense and offense, was outstanding. Kuipers played the steadiest game for either team and was nailed for a loss on only one play and the rest of the time required several Bears to get him down.

Bob Houtman, Dutch center, thwarted one Creston attempt to score when he intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard line in the final quarter and raced to the Creston's 32 yard line before he was brought down.

Lineups: Holland: Van Eck, L.E. Zonnebelt, L.T. De Vries, L.G. Houtman, C. Hill, R.G. Van Dyke, R.T. De Waard, R.H. Allen, Q. Kuipers, L.H. Benz, R.H. Hudzik, F.

Creston: Moroski, L.E. Johnson, L.T. Vogt, L.G. Smith, C. W. Miller, R.G. Buysse, R.T. T. McGee, R.E. Visner, Q. J. McGee, L.H. Brown, R.H. C. Miller, F.

Score by quarters:
Holland 6 0 0 6 12
Creston 0 7 0 7 14
Touchdowns: Visner, McGee, Van Eck 2; points after touchdowns: McGee 2.

Car Conservation Urged by Mannes

Glenn Mannes, owner of the Mannes Texaco Super Service station, 581 State St., says that because so many persons are either in war plants or so soon will be, automobiles are national assets in the transportation of war workers.

However, Mr. Mannes points out, it may be a long time before anyone gets another car, or another set of tires and therefore each automobile owner should consider himself a trustee of a certain amount of precious steel and rubber. The problem which then presents itself is that of making each car last for the duration.

There are many ways of making a car last, he states, adding that today the Mannes Super Service station is specializing in car conservation. This car service consists of the special Marfak 40-point chassis lubrication every 1,000 miles, crankcase service every 1,000 miles, front wheel bearing lubrication every 6,000 miles and transmission and differential service with a check every 1,000 miles and change every 6,000 miles.

As the success of car conservation service depends entirely upon its regularity, the Mannes service station offers to car owners a free car-saver record book in which is to be kept carefully the date and classification of each lubrication and car check-up. Mr. Mannes advises everyone to know what they have done to their car and when.

Corp. Simon Blauwkamp Receives Purple Heart

Corp. Simon Blauwkamp, son of Mrs. J. A. Blauwkamp, route 1, Zeeland, has been awarded the Purple Heart for military merit and shrapnel wounds received at El Gutter in North Africa last spring according to word received by his mother.

The following is taken from a letter written recently by Corp. Blauwkamp in which he tells in detail how he was wounded:

"One day while on (O. P.) observation point where we were trying to get the location of some enemy anti-tank guns, we were subjected to heavy artillery barrage. As I was getting out of my scout car a shell hit about ten yards from me. I ducked, but too late. I was hit with shell fragments on my knee and left arm. It wasn't so painful at first but I was immediately sent back to headquarters, for medical care, where I stayed until the wounds were healed. Everything is all right now again. That day one of the boys good naturedly said, 'Next time we'll get a white cross at the head' which is probably true."

He also wrote "Maybe we'll have some more fun in the near future, fun in a grim sort of way, for war is a funny business. First the enemy fights his best against you, tries to kill you, and then, when he is overcome, he'll ask for a cigarette or even give you one. As it is now we are just getting some rugged training."

Among the souvenirs Corp. Blauwkamp has sent home is a picture of a good looking German officer who was taken prisoner at Mateur, an Italian watch and French money. He also has a German camera taken from a German prisoner, which he is still using in North Africa.

Corp. Blauwkamp entered service on March 20, 1941, and was stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., until April, 1942, when he was sent overseas to Ireland. From there he went to North Africa.

Sprick-Appledorn Vows Spoken in Bethel Church

Bethel Reformed church was the scene of a charming wedding Thursday night when Miss Norma May Appledorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Appledorn, Sr., 267 West 15th St., became the bride of John Henry Sprick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sprick, 210 West 16th St. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Stoppels.

Vows were exchanged before the altar which was banked with palms, ferns, and white gladioli. Lighted candles and ribbon streamers on the pews also were features of the decorations.

John Swierenga played appropriate wedding music preceding the ceremony and the traditional wedding march, and also accompanied Miss Anna Mae Maatman who sang "God Sent You To Me" and "Because."

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a lace yoke, round neckline and long sleeves. The skirt featured a short train. She also wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of Joanna Hill roses.

Out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Slot Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Halting and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Slot and family, Mrs. Robert De Groot, Mrs. Nelis De Witte, Mrs. Joan De Witte, Mrs. T. Yurkimas and Bill and Bonnie Sue, Mr. and Mrs. John Bakker, all of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Rhyner Scholma of Birch Lake; Miss Veronica Felczak of Detroit; and Mrs. William Appledorn, Jr., of College Park, Md.

Mrs. Sprick was born in Holland and is a graduate of Holland High school. She has been employed as a payroll clerk at the Crampton Manufacturing Co. The groom was also born in Holland and attended Holland High school. He is employed as a machinist at the W. E. Dunn Co. They will make their home at 8 East 17th St.

Varied Program Is Given WCTU
Members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union held their first meeting of the fiscal year Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Van Oss, with Mrs. Carl Dressel presiding and Mrs. Bert Smith as acting secretary.

During a short business session Mrs. Van Oss presented the problem particular to this city—the lack of a community center or other non-liquor selling places where young people can gather after ball games and find clean entertainment.

Mrs. Fred T. Miles, director of Christian Citizenship, who was in charge of the afternoon's program led in devotions followed by a solo, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee," by Mrs. Alton Kooyers, accompanied by Mrs. Dick Van Der Meer.

Mrs. Shackson gave a review of "We Are at War," a speech by George Barton Cutten, president of Colgate university, delivered at the Northern Baptist convention in Cleveland in 1942. Dr. Cutten made a strong plea for sobriety to a nation at war, stating that alcohol and war do not mix any better than alcohol and gasoline. Dr. Cutten told of the terrible cost of the drink habit to the wealth, health and morale of this country at war, a situation in which Christ would not remain complacent. "Have we abdicated as the heralds of salvation and joined the forces of destruction?" he concluded.

Mrs. Kooyers sang "In Thee Do I Live," and Mrs. Miles, in keeping with the program theme for October, "Christian Citizenship," gave a resume of the work of the state legislature in 1942 concerning the bills of Saturday night closing of roadhouses and the selling of liquor to minors. The first was killed in committee, the second passed but is ineffective.

Mrs. Paul E. Hinkamp gave two excerpts from the Union Signal urging members to write to the postmaster general in regard to keeping filthy and obscene literature from the mails, also to the tin scrap section of the salvage division of the W. P. B. in Washington which has informed the society "you are all satisfied with the trimmings as their 50 per cent toward defense industry, because the board has not had any letters recently about it."

The meeting closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction. Mrs. Van Oss and Mrs. C. Dykhouse were hostesses for the social hour.

Battle Stubborn Blaze in Stack

Holland firemen and sheriff's officers for two hours Friday night fought a stubborn blaze in a straw stack at the rear of the main barn on the Herbert Van Den Berge farm located one and a half miles east of Holland on 16th St.

The fire, possibly caused by combustion at the bottom of the stack, was noticed about 6:50 p.m. Farm hands were milking the cows in the barn at the time.

The combustion theory was substantiated by the fact that there was no wiring near the stack, nor was there anybody smoking.

The fire was finally brought under control after John Zoerhof who operates a trucking service east of Holland put one of his empty 5,000 gallon oil tankers at the fire fighters' disposal.

The tanker was taken to the city hydrant at Lincoln Ave. and 16th St. and filled. The volume provided enough force to get through the stack to the fire, and about two-thirds of the water was used before all danger was over.

A new committee was appointed this year to have charge of the film program, which is being promoted strongly. This committee will schedule all films obtained for use in the county by the various agencies. The members are as follows: Clyde Geerlings of Holland, chairman; John De Vree, Jr., of Hudsonville, Glenn Fynewer of Coopersville, Ed Dinkel of Conklin, Melvin B. Lubbers of Zeeland and Keith Odle of Grand Haven.

Borculo

(From Friday's Sentinel)
Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gebben celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. About 50 relatives and friends gathered at their home, to help them commemorate the happy occasion.

Mrs. Gebben was the former Gertrude Diepenhorst. They were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Diepenhorst, by the late Rev. H. Krohn. Most of these years they lived in Borculo, also having lived in Zeeland, and in Grand Rapids a few years. They have two daughters and four sons, Henry, of Waukazo; Pvt. Peter Gebben who is now stationed at Cambia, Calif.; Adrian, Florence, Arlene Sylvia and Justin Glenn at home; also one grandchild, Patricia Lynn.

Guests present were the Rev. and Mrs. A. De Vries and Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Diepenhorst and David; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bruzema, and Miss Hazel Krol, all from Holland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gebben and Patricia Lynn of Waukazo; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Diepenhorst and Flora Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Arie Diepenhorst from Zeeland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gebben and Harvey from Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Diepenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Essenbarg and Glenn Preston, Mr. and Mrs. John Gebben, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gebben and family, Miss Harriet Schout, Mrs. John H. Gebben, Miss Alice Luurtzema, and Adrian, Florence, Justin Glenn, Arlene Sylvia, and the guests of honor.

A supper was served by the Misses Dorothy Spaman, Angeline Luurtzema, and Berdina Godyke. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gebben were presented with some beautiful and useful gifts. A short program in cluded a duet by the Misses Florence Gebben, Flora Mae Diepenhorst; a reading by Albert Diepenhorst, and a trumpet solo by Albert Diepenhorst. Arie Diepenhorst showed moving pictures of the invasion of Sicily, and also of Pvt. Peter Gebben, taken while he was home on furlough.

Pvt. Andrew Vande Woude, of Lincoln, Neb., and Pfc. John Esenbarg of Camp Gordon, Ga., are enjoying their furloughs visiting their friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blauwkamp are being congratulated on the birth of a son.

A harvest sale was held Oct. 7, in the Bussis building.

Mrs. L. Veldink was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bruinink, recently.

Peter Van Den Bosch of Ottawa station has purchased the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brinks located 11 miles north of Borculo. All catechism classes have again started for the winter term.

Beaverdam

(From Friday's Sentinel)

Sgt. Ted De Vries from Camp Gordon, Ga. is home on a 15-day furlough.

The League for Service met on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Norma Hungerink. Mrs. Ethel Gemmen led devotions. The mission topic on China was discussed by Jean Van Farowe.

Martin Vliet, Mrs. G. Lubbers, Mrs. J. Lapping, and Mrs. A. Slag accompanied Mrs. H. Bowman and Alfred to Fremont, Tuesday, Oct. 5, when they attended the funeral service of their uncle, Evert Schuitema, also calling on the families of G. Schuitema and H. Vliet.

Grand Haven Captain Enlists With Seabees
Grand Haven, Oct. 14 (Special)—Capt. Thomas Gosen, commanding officer of Co. F of the Michigan state troops and a member of Co. F of the Michigan National guard for 14 years, has enlisted in the navy Seabees and is awaiting call for duty from the selective service board No. 2 of Ottawa county.

Capt. Gosen is a machinist at the American Brass Novelty Co. and will enter the Seabees with a rating of firemen first class. He is married and has one child.

Scout Mothers Meet in Home of Mrs. H. Bekker
The scout mothers of troop No. 11 of Sixth Reformed church held a regular meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. H. Bekker, with a lunch being served by the hostess, Mrs. Ray Hertz, president, and plans were made for a Halloween party to be given for the scouts the latter part of October. Announcement was made of the next meeting which will be held Nov. 12.

Grit is that quality in a person that insures achievement.

Zeeland Chamber Reelects Officers

Officers were reelected at the annual fall meeting of the Zeeland Chamber of Commerce Thursday night. The officers include James C. De Pree, president; Corey Poest, vice-president; C. Karsten, secretary-manager, and Albert Vanden Brink, treasurer.

August Kasten, Jr., was elected director and R. A. De Witt was reelected as a director. Other directors whose terms did not expire include M. B. Lubbers, G. J. Van Hoven and Clarence Yntema.

Annual reports were given including one by Corey Poest, a member of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce national affairs committee and also of the Zeeland national affairs committee.

One new project to be undertaken by the Chamber is a column in the Zeeland Record prepared by a different committee each month. Secretary Karsten will assist each committee.

Seabees Recruiting Will End October 31

The selective service board announced today that midnight of Oct. 31 is the deadline for voluntary induction into the Navy Seabees (construction battalion) and that anybody interested in entering this branch should consult the selective service board or the navy recruiting station immediately.

Those interested in applying are required to submit three letters of recommendation from past and present employers stating in detail the work done, how long and how well. The nearest recruiting station is the U.S. naval armory in Grand Rapids.

This branch of the service applies only to those who have some trade or profession which qualifies them for construction work.

If we haven't that in us which is above us, we will soon yield to that which is around us.

JANE IS A PATRIOT

Jane is a war-worker in a city far from home. She's making radios for tanks. Being only 18, she sometimes gets homesick, so she has been calling her mother on long distance once a week.

Last week she didn't call. Instead she wrote a letter:

mother dear:
much as I'll miss our telephone with, I'm going to give them up. I know you'll understand, because long distance runs are so crowded with important war calls that I don't think we ought to add to the load. We'll both write nice long letters, and when the war is over we'll have our own little ones more.

Long distance lines to war-busy centers are particularly congested. Only you can decide whether your call is so important that it should be placed on those overburdened circuits. So, please...

1 Make only the most necessary calls to war-activity areas.
2 If the operator asks you to limit your call to 5 minutes, please co-operate... her request means others are waiting.

How well do you know your War Bonds?

1. Q. How many people own War Bonds—
—500,000? —1,000,000? —50,000,000?

A. More than 50,000,000 patriotic Americans—men of our fighting forces as well as civilians—have made their personal declaration of war against the Axis by buying War Bonds. Never before in history have so many people had a financial stake in their Government as do the holders of War Bonds!

2. Q. Why are War Bonds the world's safest investment for your money?

A. A War Bond is a "promise to pay" backed by the strongest government in the world. You can't get any better security! You can't lose your money. It can't be stolen. Even if the Bonds are lost or destroyed, you get every penny back. For every Bond is registered at the Treasury Department!

3. Q. If you put $3 into War Bonds, how much do you get back—
—$3.00? —$3.50? —$4.00?

A. For every $3 you put into War Bonds you get $4 back when the bonds mature! And how those extra dollars mount up! Look at this:
You buy a War Bond today at $18.75. In 10 years you get $25.00.
You buy a War Bond today at $37.50. In 10 years you get $50.00.
You buy a War Bond today at $75.00. In 10 years you get $100.00.

4. Q. Why does Uncle Sam want you to put money into War Bonds—
—to pay for equipping our fighting forces?
—to help keep prices down?
—to give you extra money after the war?

A. Check all three! The money you lend in War Bonds works hard—for the government and you! It helps pay for victory, helps keep prices down. And it comes back with interest!

5. Q. How does buying War Bonds keep prices down?

A. Right now, when our country's busy making war goods, lots of peacetime goods are scarce. There are fewer things to buy with your money. If people start bidding against each other to buy scarce goods, prices naturally go up. But if you buy War Bonds instead of scarce goods, you help keep prices down where they belong.

6. Q. Why will money you put in War Bonds be especially valuable to you after the war?

A. After the war there'll be more of the things you want to spend your money for. Your money will go further. And you'll have more to spend—with all the extra interest your War Bonds give you—when they mature!

7. Q. How much money should you put into War Bonds—
—10% of your pay? —12%? —15%?

A. Every loyal American ought to be putting at least 10 percent of his pay into War Bonds. And more if he can possibly do it. War Bonds make good sense—for selfish reasons as well as patriotic ones! Put every cent you can into War Bonds—and both you and your country will benefit!

8. Q. How should you buy War Bonds?

A. The Pay-Roll Savings Plan is the easiest way. All you do is sign a card. Money is put aside from your wages every pay day. When there's enough to pay for a Bond, the Bond is issued to you automatically. Get in today for your full 10 percent—or more!

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

If you are—

Already setting aside 10 percent of your pay for War Bonds through the Pay-Roll Savings Plan—boost that 10 percent if you can.

Working in a plant where the plan is installed but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow.

Working in a plant where the Pay-Roll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help.

Unable to get in on the Pay-Roll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank. They will be glad to help you start a plan of your own.
